Response To The This Courts
November 28, 2023, Order to Show Cause

Now Comes, Lead Plaintiff, Through a fellow inmate, Wayne Smith assisting lead plaintiff with this Timely respond to the Court's November 28, 2023 Court Order. Lead Plaintiff States the Following Material Base facts in support of the Granting of the requested Severance Motion.

- 1. Lead plaintiff George Lopez, Asserts that on November 7th, 2023, he had a Telephone Conference call with Defendants Counsel Kim Adams. Upon which Counsel made it very clear that she had no position regarding the severance motion, nor would she oppose it.
- 2. During this same conference call Ms. Adams informed this leafd plaintiff, that she intended to file seperate Summary Judgment to all Plaintiff, because all Plaintiffs having different mental health issues. which Requires Counsel to file seperate Summary Judgment.
- 3. This Lead plaintiff has incurred the full cost of litigation fees, has incurred the full cost of discovery materials, for all other four plaintiff. As also incurred full cost of material for the litigation, conducted 90 % of the research, purchasing cases needed for the litigation. This is unfair and unjust. Lead Plaintiff has prepared 95% of the motion for Houser, Stolkes and Watkins. Plaintiff Poplawski, which has filed his own pleadings. Lead plaintiff should not be the sole person carrying the full load and representing the other four plaintiff. Jose Uderra is in the free world and has no communicate with the lead plaintiff, Darien Houser, Ralph Stokes, has opposes the severance motion base on th facts that now they would have to litigate their own claims. With this requested severance the full burden of their own litigation will fall on them and not just on a Blind Plaintif,

- 4. Plaintiff Poplawski and Watkins agree to the severance and will be motioning the court as such.
- 5. lead Plaintiff argue that he is not an attorney, and should not be forced to litigate and assume the full cost of litigation for all other plaintiffr. Now Plaintiff is currently legally blind, and has to request assistant from other inmates just to be able to file his own pleadings in this court.
- 6. Lastly, due to all the above named issues, Such has created an irreparable dispute and conflict between the plaintiffs which can and compremise the complaint and further burden the Court, bringing forth unnecesary delayes and unjust financial burden on the lead plaintiff. Upon which can jeoperdize the whole court proceedin.

Wherefore: For the reasons set forth above, Lead Plaintiff, in the interest of Justice and fairness. respectfully request that this Honorable Court Grant the lead Plaintiff's Motion to sever the plaintiffs, and grant each of the plaintiff with their own case number, and grant this blind lead plaintiff his motion for appointment of counsel so that he can further his complaint even if the appoint counsel is temporary.
